Position: Library Director @ 40 hours per week for a Class V County Library.

The Alpena County Library Board of Trustees is seeking an experienced, innovative, resourceful and creative Library Director to provide vision, management, leadership and the commitment to bring this well-established and widely acclaimed library to new levels of growth and service.

Position Requirements: Include a Michigan Library Information Science degree from an American Library Association accredited institution plus a minimum of four (4) years preferably eight years (8) of progressively responsible library administrative experience in a public library comparable to the size of Alpena. The successful candidate will have significant financial management experience, strong human relations skills, a knowledge of and vision for using library technology to improve services, the ability to connect with the community and network with other organizations. Proven leadership and communication skills as well as creative problem-solving are desirable.

Region:

Located in Alpena, a lovely rural community on Lake Huron in northeastern lower Michigan where cultural activities abound - one can easily find everything from quality musical performances, well-known authors, live theater within easy driving distance. Alpena County has a population of 31,104 people. The county is filled with fresh-water inland lakes, streams, and woods that attract water enthusiasts, fishermen, and hunters. The Alpena County Library, established in 1969, has a 10 year millage of .75 mills.

Salary: Dependent upon qualifications and experience. Current salary range is $48,000 - $75,000. Benefit package included.
