DUES OPTIONS

1. ACTIVE MEMBERSHIP

Professional educators actively engaged in work within the broad field of media in education and any person interested in supporting the purposes and goals of the Association may become active members. Active members shall be entitled to vote, hold office and receive any appropriate services of the Association.

2. ASSOCIATE MEMBERSHIPS

A. RETIREES

Any persons who have held active membership in the Association upon retirement shall be eligible for retired membership status. For purposes of clarification, retirement shall mean those persons meeting the requirements for Social Security retirement benefits, or living on retirement income and not gainfully employed. Upon payment of dues, retired members shall be entitled to vote, hold office and receive any appropriate services of the organization.

B. PARAPROFESSIONALS, AIDES, TECHNICIANS, UNEMPLOYED

Paraprofessionals, aides and technicians actively engaged in work within the broad field of media in education or those currently unemployed may become associate members. They shall receive services as authorized by the Board of Directors. These members may not hold elective office.

C. STUDENTS

Full-time students may become members upon payment of dues as specified in the dues structure (3025). A student shall be defined as enrolled full time, throughout the membership year, in an institution that prepares media specialists, media paraprofessionals, or media technicians. A student membership may not be held by anyone holding a professional, paraprofessional or technical position during the membership year unless the difference in the membership dues be paid to the treasurer to make a member in good standing in the proper category of membership. Student members shall receive services as authorized by the Board of Directors. They shall not be entitled to hold elective office.

3. COMMERCIAL AND INSTITUTIONAL MEMBERSHIPS

Companies and institutions may hold membership upon payment of dues. These members shall receive services as authorized by the Board of Directors. They shall not be entitled to vote or hold elective office.

4. RETIRED LIFETIME MEMBERSHIP

Any persons who have held active membership in the Association upon retirement shall be eligible for retired lifetime membership status. Retirees who join for a lifetime at this rate will have the privilege of attending fall conference for free as long as they volunteer two hours at the conference for each day attended. This membership option will not include receipt of Media Spectrum. Subscriptions to Media Spectrum would have to be purchased annually.

5. HONORARY LIFE MEMBERSHIP

Any person who has rendered significant services to the educational media interests in the state may be elected to honorary membership on nomination of the Board of Directors and by a majority vote of the membership present and voting at any annual meeting of the Association. Persons holding honorary memberships in MASL or MAVA prior to December 13, 1973, will hold honorary membership in MAME without further assessment. Honorary members shall be entitled to all rights and privileges of membership and shall be exempt from payment of dues.

BLAST Urgent Messaging

MAME President and Executive Director reserve the right to send ALL members crucial, timely information via e-mail. This privilege will be used only when these authorized individuals feel that members must be properly informed or spurred to action.

MAME Endowment Fund

The endowment fund was created to build a reserve for the organization in emergencies. The money is conservatively invested and would not be used except in very special circumstances. Interest from the fund may be used to provide additional programming budget. Your name will be placed on the Endowment plaque and will be displayed at conference. Your contribution is tax deductible.
