

Pat Slocum Award for Outstanding Meritorious Service to MAME

Named in honor of Pat Slocum, who tirelessly served the entire library media profession through her efforts as a state consultant.

PURPOSE: To recognize outstanding participation and leadership in the activities of MAME and to the profession of library/media service.

CRITERIA: Awarded to an individual currently serving or retired who has contributed or sustained outstanding efforts to MAME projects. Emphasis is on service above and beyond what might be expected from a member.

1. List the involvements directly related to MAME that would qualify this individual for the award.
2. List other related activities/involvements with MAME, such as other organizations involved with library/media services.
3. Has this individual been recognized by any other groups for similar activities?
