

Pat Slocum Award for Outstanding Meritorious Service to MAME

Named in honor of Pat Slocum, who tirelessly served the profession through her efforts as a state consultant.

Purpose: To recognize outstanding participation and leadership in the activities of MAME and to the profession of library service.

Criteria: Awarded to an individual currently serving or retired who has contributed to the library profession and has sustained outstanding efforts with MAME projects. Emphasis is on service above and beyond what might be expected from a member.

1. Describe involvement directly related to MAME that would qualify this nominee for the award.
2. Describe other related activities that represent or promote MAME to other organizations.
3. The nominee must be a current member of MAME.
